

MidAmerica Productions, Inc.

Peter Tiboris, General Music Director

presents

THE DEBUT OF MIDAMERICA'S FIRST GREAT AMERICAN CHORAL ADJUDICATION, COMPETITION & GALA CONCERT

in Historic Carnegie Hall

TUESDAY, MAY 29, 2018

TWO DIVISIONS: HIGH SCHOOL & ADULT/UNIVERSITY

GRAND PRIZES OF $10,000

Second Prizes: $5,000 | Third Prizes: $3,000

IN EACH CATEGORY

Residency Length: Sunday, May 27 - Wednesday, May 30, 2018

Morning/Afternoon Division Competitions (20-minute solo performances): 9:00am - 4:00pm

Evening Performances and Awards Ceremony: 8:00pm

Rutter's Requiem

All High School Ensembles
John Rutter, Conductor

Beethoven's "Ode to Joy" from the Ninth Symphony

All Adult/University Ensembles
Peter Tiboris, Conductor

with the

NEW ENGLAND SYMPHONIC ENSEMBLE

20 choirs appearing in the competition and evening performance will receive:

- Special photography from their solo competition performance.
- One archival video recording of their solo competition performance.
- Special photography from the evening performance of Rutter's REQUIEM and Beethoven's "ODE TO JOY".
- One archival video recording of the evening performance.
- A Certificate of Merit to all 20 ensembles for their appearance indicating that they were "Finalists".

Application details:

- A completed application and video audition must be submitted to MidAmerica Productions via private YouTube link on or before September 15, 2017.
- The audition committee will review the submissions and announce the 20 finalists by October 1, 2017.
- Finalists must confirm involvement by registering with MidAmerica Productions by November 1, 2017.

For further information or to submit audition materials, please contact James Redcay,
Director of Program Development, by email at jredcay@midamerica-music.com or by calling 212-239-0205.